III. Statement of Facts:

1. Liberty University discriminated against Plaintiff because of his race (Black). Liberty University enrolled Plaintiff in 18 hours of coursework in the first semester of classes. This was three times the 6 hour requirement. One of the classes required Plaintiff to report to class in Lynchburg. Liberty University stated that this was a mistake but they did nothing to correct it. These were online classes for a Master's Degree in Educational Leadership and Plaintiff was working full time. Plaintiff received back grades because of being placed in an impossible position.
